Central Area Senior Citizens Show Five Years of Progress

Five years ago on May 15, 1971, the Central Area Sr. Citizen Center was opened at 2316 So. Yakima Ave., under the sponsorship of the Tacoma City Association of Colored Women's Clubs, Inc. This was an epoch-making event for the City of Tacoma for several reasons.

First, it was the only center designed to serve all the sr. citizens of a large, specific geographical area that until then had no such service. Second, it was the only sr. citizen center in Tacoma/Pierce County that provided free, daily hot, nutritious meals for the seniors. Finally, because of the demographic characteristics of the area, from the outset the center was, and still is, truly multi-racial.

Initially, the Sr. Citizen Program was funded by Model Cities. But in January 2, 1974, the City of Tacoma took over funding and operation of the program and expanded it to include other areas of the City, placing it under the City's Department of Human Development, which in turn placed it under Sr. Services Central, a component of the Department.

In its five years of existence the Central Area Sr. Citizen Center has had a remarkable growth, not only in terms of attendance, but also in terms of entertainment, fellowship and services it provides.

On Friday, May 14, 1976, the Center will celebrate its fifth anniversary with a diversified variety entertainment program that will have something to satisfy everyone. It will be a real fun day. You and your family/friends are cordially invited to join us on May 14th and help to make this day a memorable one. The festivities will begin at 1:00 p.m.

In addition to the entertainment, we will provide a sumptuous lunch, strickly on a donation basis. We do ask, however, that you let us know not later than May 6th if you are coming for lunch and how many will be in your party. You may call us at 627-9777 or 593-4832.

Looking forward to seeing you on May 14th.

VIOLENCE IN THE SCHOOLS

Recently Samuel Wright stated that violence in the schools is a national disgrace. I have to agree with him to the fullest. His report stated that whether we want to admit it or not, violence in our schools is a fact, and it is easier than most parents care to admit for their children to get on the wrong side of the law. This being the case, one might ask, "In what kinds of problems do children usually get involved?"

First of all, but not necessarily in order of seriousness, are such crimes as vandalism, (2) arson, (3) aggravated assault, (4) car theft, (5) drugs, and (6) carrying weapons. Vandalism, perhaps, is the most common of all offenses in both cities as well as suburbs... For instance, in the Philadelphia School System, the cost for vandalism is well over 5 million dollars a year. Valuable items such as TV sets, recording machines, speakers from intercoms, typewriters, and other resaleable gear make insurance against vandalism almost nonexistent.

Since most parents feel a responsibility for what their children do, I feel it is about time that teachers waged an all-out campaign to not only let the parents know what is going on in our schools, but also solicit their help in resolving this disgraceful dilemma, which has already reached epidemic proportions.

Granted that most of the students do come to school seeking an education, nevertheless, there is still a large segment that "commits violence just for the sake of violence." Only recently a United States Senate Subcommittee under the direction of Senator Birch Bayh, investigated the problem of violence in our schools.

After examining over half of the nation's school districts, it was reported that over 100 students were murdered on school grounds in 1973, over 60,000 teachers are physically assaulted every school year, over 30% of high school teachers reported that they were aware of the use of "hard drugs" in their schools, and over 60% of the students admitted in a survey that they get drunk at least each month.

How prepared are teachers to deal with rehabilitating heroin pushers, winos, thugs and students who come to school for the express purpose of committing serious criminal offenses?

We are being dishonest with ourselves if we do not admit that "things have fallen apart" in our high schools in regard to basic discipline.

Principals are lying, teachers are lying, superintendents are lying, and school boards are lying when they say schools do not have a "serious" problem in regard to a breach of behavior. It's about time teachers led the way in offering solutions to this problem of disruptiveness in our schools. Violence is not going to be stopped until the parents of these delinquent children are held responsible for the acts of their children, for surely a teacher is not responsible for an eleventh grade student who sells drugs in the lavatories of our schools. RIGHT ON!

Martin Wyatt Leaves Seattle for D. C.

By Dave Mann

KING TV announced last Friday that their Number 2 man in sports, Martin Wyatt, has taken a job with WRC-TV in Washington D.C. WRC-TV is an affiliated station of the strong and prestigious N.B.C. network. Working under the leadership of sports director Ray McMackin at KING, Wyatt has established himself throughout the state as one of the most popular sportscasters around. His coup de grace had to be his documentary last winter on Sonics boss Bill Russell and his excellent coverage and interview with everybody's favorite heavyweight champion Muhammad Ali.

During that interview in Manila, Martin was very candid as he rapped with Ali. While watching the interview I felt as if Martin and Ali were old friends just sitting around the living room rapping with each other. The interview was that casual and so informative that it may become a classic.

To those who may have forgotten or just don't know, Martin was a standout football player at the University of Washington during the 1960 and '61 season. There he teamed with George Fleming, Charlie Mitchell, Ray Jackson and Jo Jones to form an electrifying backfield for the Huskies that has not been surpassed since their exit from the college scene.

Martin's popularity was also expressed by KING news director Norm Heffron when he stated that, "We'll hate to lose Marty. I like him and the audience likes him." This writer for one really hates to see Martin leave the Seattle area. What with the dome stadium completion and the many sports activities that are on tap for this area, we will sorely miss Martin's sports expertise and lively interviews of sports personalities.

Martin will go on the air with WRC June 14 as weekend sports anchorman and will do weekday sports reporting three days a week as well. No dissatisfaction at all with KING was reported by Martin as the cause of his seeking new employment; it was just the money and a chance to expand into a broader horizon. Martin is from Vallejo, California and has worked for KYAC and KVI radio.

Mrs. Martin Wyatt received flowers from her husband's new bosses in Washington D.C. on Friday, April 23rd. FACTS newswoman, church editor Mrs. Mae Campbell, gives special congratulations to her son-in-law for a successful endeavor on his new job. She also reminds Martin of the excessive distance from Washington D.C. to Seattle that he will have to travel to partake of the old fashioned peach cobbler that his taste buds have become accustomed to. We here at THE FACTS would like to wish Martin every success in his new position and to remind all of our readers that Martin's departure is truly a Seattle loss and a Washington gain.

It's Important To Know The Facts!

Special Bloodbank for Sickle Cell Anemia Patients Needed

We are soliciting community help in establishing an additional needed medical service for persons identified with sickle cell diseases.

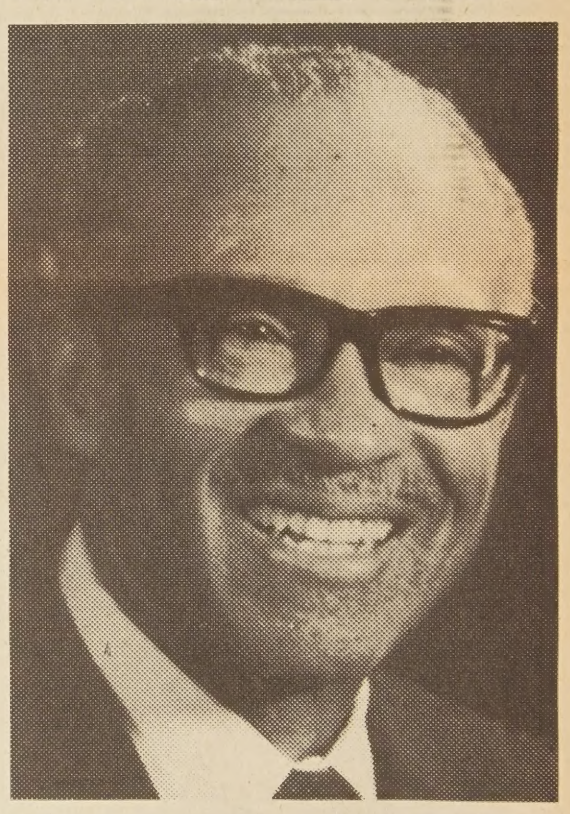
There are twenty known Sickle Cell Disease, (Sickle Cell Anemia, Sickle-C, Sickle Thalassemia), clients in this community currently participating in our program, some of these clients are frequently admitted to the hospital because of sickle cell crisis and given blood transfusions. The bloodbank requires cash payment or replacement (2 for 1) for blood administered to all individuals.

The Department of Public Assistance nor will most medical insurance pay for blood transfusions.

Most of these clients are unable financially to afford these life saving transfusions.

Therefore, we are soliciting your participation in helping us to establish a "Special Bloodbank for Sickle Cell Patients." The only request of you would be to go to the Tacoma Pierce County Bloodbank located at 220 So. "I" St., and inform the receptionist that you would like to donate blood for the Sickle Cell Program's clients.

CHURCH MEMBERS TO HONOR PASTORS



Rev. & Mrs. E.S. Brazill... Our Beloved Pastor & Wife.

The city of Tacoma was chosen as their home 21 years ago, when he was called to Shiloh, as Pastor. He and Mrs. Brazill received their formal training in schools in Houston, and the South, that prepared them to work so successfully as a team, here in Tacoma.

Both Rev. & Mrs. Brazill came to the Northwest from Houston, TX, back when opportunities for Blacks were not as numerous as they are today. Pastor Brazill was instrumental in helping pave the way for some of the advantages that Blacks have here today, by holding several posts throughout the city, as well as numerous positions in the church, and in the Pacific Northwest Convention.

Under their leadership, the church is now paid for, and free of any out outstanding debts. The membership has grown the past 21 years, with many coming for baptism.

Mr. Brazill has been wonderful, always along beside her husband. She works wherever she is needed in the church, and is a very sweet person. She is a great help to her husband, and to the church, as well.

Rev. & Mrs. Brazill are the proud parents of two children. A son, Nataniel, and a daughter, Maxine, and four Grandchildren, all living in Richmond, California.

Oh yes, we are proud of them, and thankful that the Lord gave them to us.

The whole congregation joins in wishing the best of everything that health, and all the good things of life can bring.

Much love to the both of you, and "GODSPEED"

Obituary

Alpheno (Big Al) Hearns, 21 of 2324 No. Alder departed this life at his home in Tacoma, Washington early on the morning of Tuesday, April 20, 1976.

He was born November 24, 1954 to James Jr. and Taiko (Takahama) Hearns in Senrai, Japan.

He mainly grew up in Tacoma and was 1971 graduate of Lincoln High School.

He worked for a while at Richole Chemicals as a fibre glass worker. He liked fishing, but was artistically inclined toward music, poetry and the arts. He loved the beauty and the things that nature offered. He was a deeply sensitive person.

Those whose lives he brightened during his brief stay in this like include his mother and father both of Tacoma, one brother Gregory Hearns of Spanaway, Washington and his daughter Stephanie of Tacoma and one grandfather, Mr. James Hearns Sr. of Detroit.

Services were held 10 AM, Friday, April 23, 1976 at the Hill Top Chapel and were directed by the staff of the House of Scott Mortuary. His final resting place is Fir Lane Memorial Park.

What Is the Price of a Mother's Love

What is the price of a mother's tears? There is no love like a mother's love and nature itself teaches us this. Strong. motherly love even exists among animals. An example is that of an eagle who will fight fiercely to protect her young.

In our human experience our mother carried us within her abdomen and carried high hopes for us in her for nine (9) suffering months before releasing her burden in painful birth. Even then, in this cruel world, her tears were only beginning. She nursed her baby through the usual childhood diseases, provided it with food and environment and calmed its frightened terror with her gentle love. Then the day came when our mother had to stand on the sidelines and watch us totter out into a hostile world to face life. She was always with us throughout everything, our trials, mistakes, heartaches, disappointments, discouragements and even through danger itself. It frustrated her to know that there were many times she was unable to help us out of a bad situation and she cried. But nobody saw her tears, but god.

No matter how old we get, we're always "Mother's Child." When tragedy strikes, she cares little whether her child died in the right or in the wrong; all she knows is that a cold and lonely grave is waiting somewhere to claim her own flesh and blood, whom she had loved so deeply.

In life we meet and hear about many wicked people who mistreat the elderly, weak, poor and the honest. In a moment of passion we might wish physical violence upon such an evil person. Let us pause here and stop a moment to consider the full impact of our violence upon the guilty victim and the innocent victim. There's no doubt that an evil person deserves some form of punishment, but to kill that person will also punish an innocent victim, his or her mother. Because her child has died violently she doesn't stop caring and her love will go on long with her grief and she'll cry as she sees her hopes and ambitions she had for it being dashed to bits. Who can put a price tag on a mother's tears?

Scrambled Eggs Galore

THE EASTER BUNNY AND BROWN SUGAR UNLIMITED

The Easter Bunny was there, wer you??? Brown Sugar Unlimited sponsored it's first annual Easter Egg Hunt, Sunday, April 18, 1976 at Franklin Park.

In spite of bleak weather conditions, an estimated crowd of (75-100) persons attended the Easter egg hunt.

The hunt started at 2 p.m. and lasted for about an hour and a half. The children ranged in age from 18 mo.-12 years, were divided up into four different age groups- (up to 3 years), (4-6), (7-9) and (10-12). Each child wore a colored egg tag which showed their group.

Along with the 735 real eggs also hidden were plastic eggs which contained prize numbers. Some eggs had coins taped to them for "Finders-Keepers." The winners of the plastic eggs were as follows: 18 mo.-3: 1st Place, Micheal McCury, 2nd Place, Byron Bulter, 3rd Place, Darrel Peters.

4-6: 1st Place, Kenny Jefferson, 2nd Place, Keasha Woodruff, 3rd Place, Pat McRay.

7-9: 1st Place, Charles James, 2nd Place, Greg Simmons, 3rd Place, Steve Meyes.

10-12: 1st Place, Kim Edwards, 2nd Place, Brenda Conners, 3rd Place, Jackie Williams.

The winners received in each winning place: 1st Place-$2.00, 2nd Place-A large Easter Basket, 3rd Place-A large Chocolate Covered Bunny.

All the children who attended the egg hunt had loads of fun, and for those of you who missed out...Well, stay tuned in for future details of next year's Easter Egg Hunt when Tacoma's Brown Sugar's Easter Bunny strikes again.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT By Barbara Henderson

Separation is not always a bad thing. Sometimes by separating you will realize how much you need each other and unite again or you may even be better off without each other.

Take Smokey Robinson & The Miracles for example. Now, here is a situation that turned out pretty good. Smokey is now on his own and has just cut a new album, "Smokey's Family Robinson." Smokey, to me, seems like a very mellow, introvert person. Now that he's been on his own for so long, I really can't see him and The Miracles together. The Miracles are bad too!

Separation depends on the circumstances. If you as a man or woman left for reasons beyond your control, would that make your relationship better or worse?

Take Mayor Maynard Jackson and his wife's separation. Their separation was mutually made so that they both agreed on it.

Think separation over before you plan to do it. It can be a bad move in some relationships. On the other hand, it can be a help.

Scouting

The Kite Contest, sponsored by V.F.W. was held last Saturday at Seward School. We had about seventy-five (75) people there, including the adults. This was not too bad a turn out, considering the good lord had to give us wind, rain and hail all within two hours. We about froze to death, but everyone had a good time. There was hot dogs and hot chocolate for the children and coffee for the adults. We had kites of all shapes and sizes. They were all made by the boys.

The following boys were the winners: The top winner was Eric Parks, of Pack 54. He had the kite with the best Bicenntial theme on it. This little boy has only been in Cubs less than a month and is only 8 years old. The highest flying prize was awarded to Pack 54's, Ricky Schrodetzki. The smallest flying prize was awarded to Pack 69's David Bech. All the kites had to be able to fly in order to compete for a prize. The prizes given were all Cub Scout items. Each Pack also got a red ribbon to place on their Pack Flag.

Well I'm going to leave you for another week, hoping I will see some of you at the Scout A Rama next Saturday. If you get a chance to come by and see us, we'll be in District #1, Booth # 42. We will be glad to talk to you. HOPE TO SEE YOU ALL THERE!!!
